

Emma Baumgardner
University of Mary Washington
UMW Box 1913, 1701 College Ave
Fredericksburg, VA 22401
(540)-525-5950
ebaumga3@mail.umw.edu

Education:

University of Mary Washington, Fredericksburg, VA May 2019
Bachelor of Arts in Communications and Digital Studies

Overall GPA: 3.53

Relevant Courses:

- Public Speaking
- Small Group Communication
- Intro to Digital Studies
- Intro to Computer Science
- History of American Technology and Culture

Experience:

Orientation Leader/ Peer Mentor Spring 2017-Present

- Help incoming students transition into life at the University
- Partner with a faculty member to plan programming and help students adjust to college classes both academically and socially

Tour guide in the UMW Admissions Office Spring 2016-Present

- Lead prospective students in tours around the Mary Washington Campus
- Interview and help train perspective guides
- Host open houses
- Provide information about the school for current and potential students

Attended the National Association for Campus Activities Conference Spring 2017

- Attended educational sessions to learn how to better implement programs and activities throughout the college campus
- Connected with vendors and potential performing acts for the University

Chair for Big Events Cabinet of Campus Programming Board Fall 2016-Present

- Plan large events that happen throughout the Mary Washington campus
- Send emails to fellow cabinet members about upcoming meetings and events
- Lead and attend biweekly cabinet meetings
- Attend weekly executive board meetings to go over budgeting and planning

Achievements:

Dean's list Fall 2015-Present

- Received a GPA of 3.5 or higher

Member of The National Society of Collegiate Scholars Spring 2016-Present

- Must have a minimum GPA of 3.4 to be admitted
- Provides scholarship and networking opportunities

Skills:

Basic knowledge of:

- Word
- PowerPoint
- Excel
- Proficient in Spanish

